Cornish, English, Gaelic, Welsh, French and Breton. The documentaries covered a wide range of subject matter from light hearted to challenging social commentaries. The general standard was excellent, and it was a pleasure for the jury to listen through these documentaries and it was difficult to choose an overall winner.

We were especially pleased to receive entries from community radio stations such as Isles FM with their insightful documentary of the 'Beginners guide to the MOD' and Spotlight on Brittany's 'Living Brittany', which gave us an entertaining snapshot of a ceilidh or maybe you call it a «Fest Noz» in Brittany.
