

Glomel Twinning 2

Rob So I'm talking now to one of the students, Christina. Why are you learning English?

Christina For going in Ireland.

Rob And have you been to Ireland before?

Christina Yes, two times.

Rob Two times? OK, and what did you see?

Christina The land and the sea and the mountain and the pub, yes!

Rob Very important the pub!

Christina Fish and chips.

Rob Oh it's great, excellent. Fish and chips....

Christina Yes

Rob ...is part of the culture. And so what do you think are the similarities between the culture in Glomel and the cultures in Ireland?

Christina Uh similarity, dance, music, Celtic music and, uh, the people in Brittany and the... in Ireland like beer!

Rob (Laughs) And do you like Guinness?

Christina Um, no, I don't like Guinness, I like Sm...

Rob Smithwick's.

Christina Smithwick's, yes.

Rob OK and.....

Christina And Irish coffee.

Rob Irish coffee, a bit of whiskey?

Christina Yes.

Rob Excellent stuff.

Christina And cream!

Rob What, for you, is the big difference between going on a twinning and going on a normal journey?

Christina In the twinning we know, uh, the persons and now they are friends.

Rob And the doers same group go to Spain also?

Christina Yes.

Rob So you've been in Spain as well?

Christina Yes/

Rob OK. And, uh, do you speak Spanish?

Christina A little.

Rob Ah.

Christina Un poco.

Rob I hope you have a brilliant time. Thank you very much.

Christina You're welcome.
