

I am silly

But I love moving my body

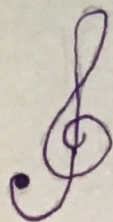

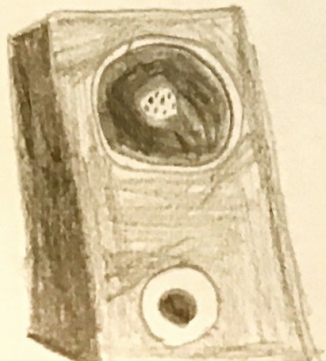

With my friends it's funny

And our dance is groovy

MUSIC

My sister has a red puppy

And she has called him strawberry

But my daddy is quite silly:

He ~~ate~~ him accidentally

I SCHOOL

When I go to school

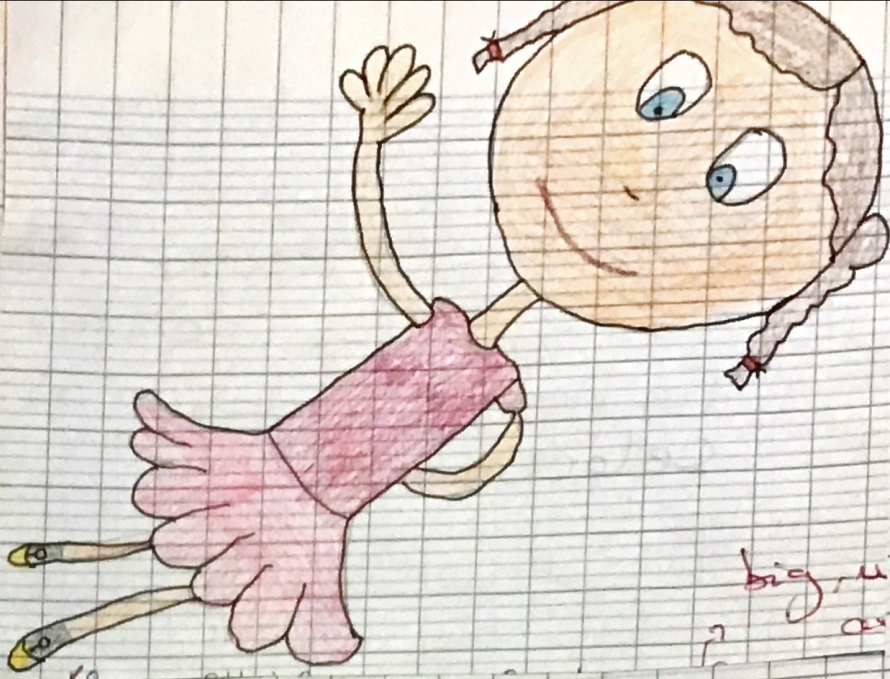

I'm always cool

I'm happy from Monday

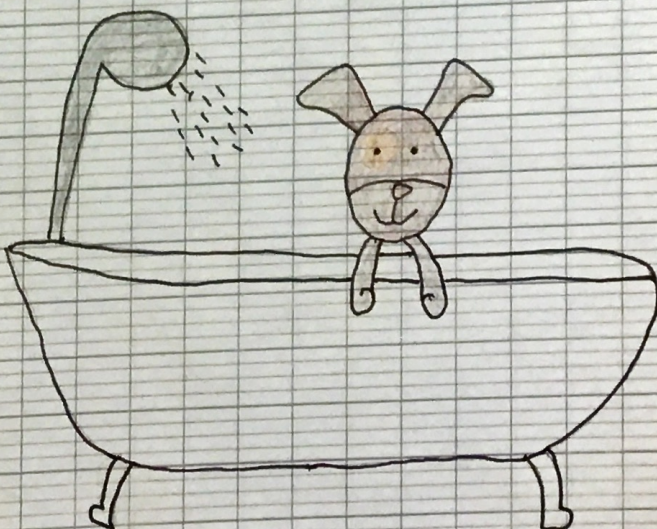

To the end of Friday

Scarlett's dog is big, ugly and funny
One day he played in a jacuzzi
But he turned on the water jet and wet all the house of Scarlett.

The little Paul stayed late out of bed

His mother told him to go to bed, but he didn't want to

His mother therefore forced him to go to bed

From his room, Paul shouted
"Dictator!"

I have a dog named Marcel

Everyone wonders why

he stays in his kennel

Because he is a rebel, my little Marcel.

My cat is called Britney

She is not happy because the sky is grey

She smiles when we serve her crisps

She is happy when she eats chips

My Grandpa

My Grandpa Johnny

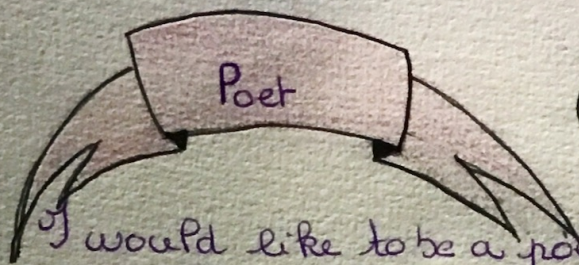

Is always angry.

He says: "It was better in the past!",

But I think his mind is not that fast.

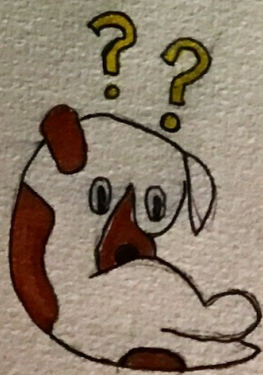

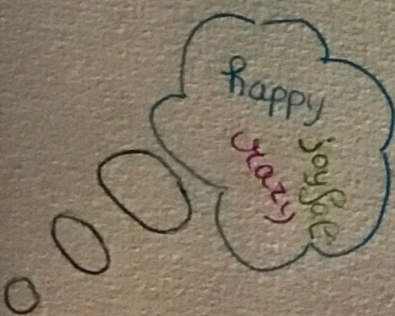

Neither of my Grandfather ~~is~~ called Johnny

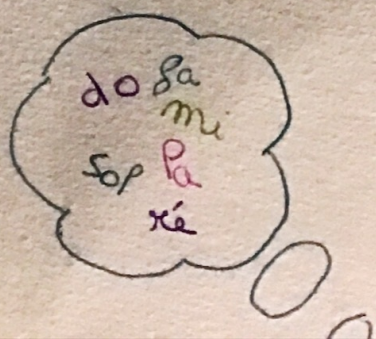

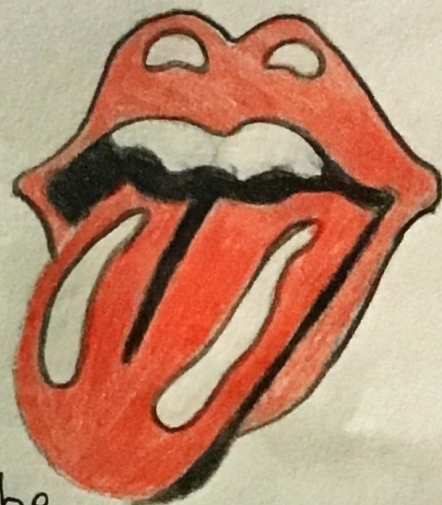

I would like to be a poet
and make words sing

But in my head there is nothing
I am as silly as a pet

I'm listening to a new thing

Difficult to describe this good vibe

It's not coming ^{From} to a video but ^{From the} a radio

My hips are shaking ^{by themselves} alone on the Rolling Stones ^{along to} Stone

Poetry Project

- My sister is a bit angry
- And  me, i am always grumpy.
- But, with a little bit of poetry.
- It usually  end up happily.

The queen has got a puppy
This puppy bankrupted the monarchy
He bit the crown; What a story!
The parliament was very angry.

A good mouse

My cat met a mouse, she said "come to my house"

The cat can't enter in the house, so the one who entered was the mouse

The cat said "You can eat cheese, if you say please"

And "You can enter my mouth if you are a good mouse"

I dream to be super man,
Super Woman will adore me,
I would like to climb up the walls like spider-man,
But my mother wants me to be a postman.

My diary ran away
because it is always afraid to be used for tests and not ^{for} recess
