

STUDENTS INTERVIEW – YUON AND ZOE

Rozenn: We are in St Chau(?), to record the interview of two pupils who are very excited to become radio stars, because indeed, they're the winners of the European project we've been working on in class. So well done, you two. Well done for your hard work. So let's start. What's your name?

Yuon: My name's Yuon.

Rozenn: And what's your name?

Zoe: My name is Zoe.

Rozenn: So what artist did you choose, Yuon?

Yuon: I have chosen William Shakespeare. Shakespeare was an English actor, poet and playwright. We don't know when he was born, but we know that he was baptised the 26th of April in 1564, in Stratford Upon Avon. He had three children with Anne Hathaway. He wrote many plays, like Romeo and Juliet, Hamlet or Othello, when he was in the troupe of The Lord Chamberlain's Men, and my favourite play is Romeo and Juliet. He died the 23rd of April in 1616. On his tomb there's a note – Good friend, for Jesus' sake, forbear to dig the dust enclosed here. Blessed be the man that spares these stones, and cursed be he that moves my bones.

Rozenn: Excellent quote. Well done. And what about you, Zoe?

Zoe: I chose Vincent Van Gogh. I chose Vincent Van Gogh because I like his way of painting, and his painting. I like the way he paints what he sees. I really like Vincent Van Gogh's painting The Starry Night, with its spiral stars, and The Sunflower because he painting his flowers in a way that no-one had done before.

Yuon: I enjoyed this task because I don't usually do a presentation in English. It is just the second time, and I learnt a lot of vocabulary.

Rozenn: And you, Zoe?

Zoe: I loved doing this task because I learned a lot about Vincent Van Gogh, and doing it with my sister was very fun.
