

Voice1: Hello ladies and gentlemen. Let's give a big round of applause for our 3 mystery guests today. We are so pleased to have you here. How are you doing?

Voice 2: Great and so happy too, it's a real pleasure to meet you.

Voice1: I've always dreamed to talk with you about serious topics above all about abusive schooling.

Voice 3: Could you introduce yourself and give some important evidence in your life.

Voice 2: Hello everyone. I think we have already recognised my voice. I am the singer and the guitarist of a very famous British band. It is very important for me to be here today because I have always been involved in bringing this to the world but also in school.

Voice1: I am really honoured to meet you today and to talk to you face to face. You are an icon of the 20th century.

We have here with us today another big singer

Voice 3: Yes, I'm think you're talking about me, so I don't know on him but I'm..... Corrie Davis, I've been in education, by the way, speaking today, I'll be on all of my good because of coming here today.....so Iwrote a song which denounces with teacher behaviour with children ...maybe you'll know it, if I say it .. "Hey teacher leave them kids alone".

Voice 2: "Or you're just another brick in the wall"..Of course I know it. It was my favourite song when I was younger.. I love the music and the lyrics and I used to listen to it on the continual loop.

Voice 4: So I think it's my turn to introduce myself, .. maybe some of you know me as the wife of the former president of the United States, but I don't like so much when people resume a woman, just according to her husband. So I am a very strong woman and I tried my best to improve American's life and especially childrens'

Voice 1: Ah yes I remember and I was deeply impressed by your campaign 'Let's move' which aim at reducing childhood obesity and encourage a healthy life style, em and your 'Reach Higher' initiative, which aims and encourage, encouraging teenagers to study.

Voice 5: So hello everybody and welcome to everybody in the audience. Today we are very happy to welcome our 3 guests. I am very thrilled to have the opportunity to talk to you today. Before we start the interview I am announcing to the audience that the guests won't give their names but they will give clues that will help you guess who they are. So could you please introduce yourself in a few words.

- Voice 6: Yes, sure, Good afternoon everyone. Umm...I'm a statesman and I live in South Africa, it's my home country. I fought against the apartheid and I received a lot of distress.
- Voice5 : Alright, so you are from South Africa. What about you....what country are you from?
- Voice 7: Me, I'm a rock singer in an Irish band and I'm mainly famous for my song against violence in Northern.
- Voice 5: Ok, so you're from Ireland, you're South Africa and what country are you from?
- Voice 8: I come from US, in Georgia err, I'm a young famous jazz musician and I worked on song, protest song against black lives and the struggles.
- Voice 9: I'm Michael Jackson..I'm really eccentric popular singer in the USA and the world, so I choose this celebrity as I think he embodies the fight against segregation in the USA and the social injustice in the same country.
